

Mizuho International appoints Julie Edinburgh as Head of Vanilla MTNs, Primary Debt

London, 28 September 2017: Mizuho International plc (Mizuho International), the London based securities and investment banking arm of Mizuho Financial Group, Inc. has appointed Julie Edinburgh as Managing Director, Head of Vanilla MTNs. Based in London, Julie reports to Guy Reid, Head of Debt Syndicate at Mizuho International.

Julie Edinburgh joined Mizuho International on 25 September. She was previously at Credit Suisse where she was most recently Global Head of EMTNs and Private Placements. In this newly created role, she is responsible for setting Mizuho International's vanilla MTN business strategy. She will work closely with Mizuho Securities colleagues globally to optimise MTN opportunities in this area of growth.

Commenting on the appointment, Guy Reid, Head of Debt Syndicate at Mizuho International said: "I am delighted that Julie has joined Mizuho to spearhead our vanilla MTN business in Europe. She has a deep knowledge of the private placement and derivatives business which will be key to providing further bespoke financing opportunities to our client base."
